LCDR ROBERT S. PASKULOVICH, USN

LCDR Paskulovich is a native of Detroit, Michigan. He attended Wayne State University where he earned a B.S. degree in Metallurgical Engineering in June 1975.

He completed primary flight training in T-34B's at Saufley Field in Pensacola and was commissioned as an Ensign USNR in September 1975. Upon completion of basic flight training in T-28B/C's at North Whiting Field in Milton, Florida, and advanced flight training in TS-2A's/US-2B's at Naval Air Station Corpus Christi, Texas, he was designated a Naval Aviator on 25 June 1976.

In March, 1977 LCDR Paskulovich completed P-3B replacement pilot training and was subsequently assigned as a fleet ASW pilot with VP-11 out of NAS Brunswick, Maine. From March 1977 until September 1980 he served as a flight instructor in primary and intermediate flight training in VT-3. From October 1982 to November 1984 he served aboard the USS Independence, CV-62, as the Operations Administrative Assistant. LCDR Paskulovich then attended the Naval Postgraduate school from January 1985 to June 1987, graduating with a Master of Science Degree in Aeronautical Engineering and an Aeronautical Engineer Degree in Aeronautical Engineering. After this tour, LCDR Paskulovich was assigned to VP-10, returning to the ASW mission. Upon completion of this duty LCDR Paskulovich was transferred to the Naval Air Warfare Center, Aircraft Division, Warminster. LCDR Paskulovich was thereafter assigned to the Aviation Safety Programs in May, 1992.

LCDR Paskulovich has over four-thousand flight hours in a variety of fixed-wing aircraft. He holds an Airline Transport Pilot rating and is type rated in turboprop and turbojet aircraft.
